----- X

In the Matter of the Proceeding
Pursuant to Section 44, subdivision 4,
of the Judiciary Law in Relation to

DEBRA M. WHITEMAN,

STIPULATION

a Justice of the Cherry Valley Town Court, Otsego County.

----- X

THE FOLLOWING IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Robert
H. Tembeckjian, Administrator and Counsel to the Commission on Judicial Conduct (hereinafter "Commission"), the Honorable Debra M. Whiteman, the respondent in this proceeding, and her attorney, Dennis B. Laughlin Esq.

1. This Stipulation is presented to the Commission in connection with a formal proceeding pending against respondent.
2. Respondent is not and never has been an attorney. She has been a Justice of the Cherry Valley Town Court, Otsego County, since November 1, 1997.
Respondent's current term as Town Justice expires on December 31, 2009.
3. Respondent was served with a Formal Written Complaint dated October 29, 2009, which contained four charges. A copy of the Formal Written Complaint is annexed as Exhibit A.
4. Respondent filed an Answer dated November 19, 2009, in which she admitted the material allegations of Charge I and acknowledged her inability to produce court financial records for the years 2003 and 2004, but denied the remainder of the allegations. A copy of respondent's Answer is annexed as Exhibit B.

5. Respondent affirms that she is leaving judicial office upon the expiration of her term on December 31, 2009, and that she will neither seek nor accept judicial office at any time in the future.

6. All parties to this Stipulation respectfully request that the Commission close the pending matter based upon this Stipulation.

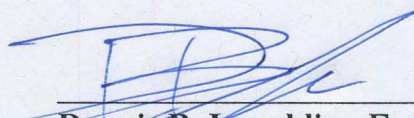

7. Respondent waives confidentiality as provided by Section 45 of the Judiciary Law to the limited extent this stipulation will be made public if accepted by the Commission.

STATE OF NEW YORK
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

In the Matter of the Proceeding
Pursuant to Section 44, subdivision 4,
of the Judiciary Law in Relation to

DEBRA M. WHITEMAN,

a Justice of the Cherry Valley Town Court,
Otsego County.

FORMAL WRITTEN COMPLAINT

1. Article 6, Section 22, of the Constitution of the State of New York establishes a Commission on Judicial Conduct ("Commission"), and Section 44, subdivision 4, of the Judiciary Law empowers the Commission to direct that a Formal Written Complaint be drawn and served upon a judge.
2. The Commission has directed that a Formal Written Complaint be drawn and served upon Debra M. Whiteman ("respondent"), a Justice of the Cherry Valley Town Court, Otsego County.
3. The factual allegations set forth in Charges I through IV state acts of judicial misconduct by respondent in violation of the Rules of the Chief Administrator of the Courts Governing Judicial Conduct ("Rules").
4. Respondent has been a Justice of the Cherry Valley Town Court, Otsego County, since 1998. Respondent's current term expires on December 31, 2009. Respondent is not an attorney.

CHARGE I

5. From in or about November 2003 to in or about June 2009, as set forth on the annexed Schedules A, B and C, respondent failed to deposit approximately $8,745 in court funds within 72 hours of receipt, as required by Section 214.9(a) of the Uniform Civil Rules for the Justice Courts.

6. From in or about November 2003 to in or about June 2009, as set forth on the annexed Schedules A and C, respondent failed to remit approximately $5,885 in court funds to the State Comptroller, as required by Sections 2020 and 2021(1) of the Uniform Justice Court Act, Section 1803 of the Vehicle and Traffic Law, and Section 27(1) of the Town Law.

Specifications to Charge I

7. As set forth on Schedule A, respondent failed to deposit into her court account or to remit to the State Comptroller $4,610 in checks, money orders and cash she received in 23 cases between November 2003 and December 2006. Respondent kept these funds unsecured within the court dockets in an unsecured area of the court, where they remained as of June 9, 2009.

8. As set forth on Schedule B, for periods of between eight and 42 months, respondent failed to deposit into her court account $2,860 in checks and money orders she received in 17 cases between April 2004 and November 2006, resulting in the refusal of the payors to honor the stale checks and money orders.

9. As set forth on Schedule C, respondent failed to deposit into her court account or remit to the State Comptroller $1,275 in checks and money orders she received in eight cases between December 2004 and August 2005.

10. By reason of the foregoing, respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section 100.1 of the Rules; failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in that she failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, in violation of Section 100.2(A) of the Rules; and failed to perform the duties of judicial office impartially and diligently, in that she failed to give her judicial duties precedence over all her other activities, in violation of Section 100.3(A) of the Rules, failed to be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(1) of the Rules, failed to dispose of all judicial matters promptly, efficiently and fairly, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(7) of the Rules, failed to diligently discharge her administrative responsibilities and maintain professional competence in judicial administration, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(1) of the Rules, and failed to require court staff to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to the judge, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(2) of the Rules.

CHARGE II

11. At various times between January 1, 2004 and the present, respondent altered court records in 22 cases and destroyed documents in eight of those cases to conceal her mishandling of court funds.

Specifications as to Charge II

12. As set forth on Schedule B, respondent altered her court dockets in 15 cases to conceal the date she received court funds and altered her court dockets in ten cases to falsely reflect that she dismissed the charge.

13. As set forth on Schedule C, respondent altered her court dockets in seven cases to conceal the dates she received court funds, and she altered her court dockets in two of those cases to falsely reflect that she had dismissed the charges. In addition, respondent destroyed checks, money orders and/or records of payments received with respect to each case set forth on Schedule C.

14. By reason of the foregoing, respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section 100.1 of the Rules; and failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in that she failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, in violation of Section 100.2(A) of the Rules

CHARGE III

15. At various times between January 2005 and August 2008, in nine cases as set forth on the annexed Schedule D, respondent failed to timely notify the Department of Motor Vehicles to lift the suspension of the defendants' drivers licenses after having received the defendants' fine monies and termination-of-suspension fees, notwithstanding Section 503(2)(j-1)(i) of the Vehicle and Traffic Law.

16. By reason of the foregoing, respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section 100.1 of the Rules; failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in that she failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, in violation of Section 100.2(A) of the Rules; and failed to perform the duties of judicial office impartially and diligently, in that she failed to give her judicial duties precedence over all her other activities, in violation of Section 100.3(A) of the Rules, failed to be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(1) of the Rules, failed to dispose of all judicial matters promptly, efficiently and fairly, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(7) of the Rules, failed to diligently discharge her administrative responsibilities and maintain professional competence in judicial administration, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(1) of the Rules, and failed to require court staff to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to the judge, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(2) of the Rules.

CHARGE IV

17. From in or about 2003 to the present, respondent failed to maintain adequate court records as required by Sections 107 and 2019 of the Uniform Justice Court Act and Section 214.11(a) of the Uniform Civil Rules for the Justice Courts, in that she was unable to produce for the Commission any financial records pertaining to the years 2003 and 2004 and otherwise kept inaccurate and altered court records.

Specifications to Charge IV

18. Notwithstanding a continuing request by Commission Counsel, respondent has been unable to produce court financial records for the years 2003 and 2004, including, but not limited to, bank statements, cashbooks and deposit receipts.

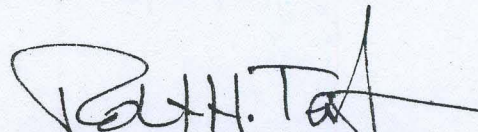

19. Respondent has failed to maintain accurate court records, in that she stores court records in an unsecured storage closet and, as set forth more fully on Schedules B and C, and in Charge II, supra, has altered court dockets and destroyed documents.

20. By reason of the foregoing, respondent should be disciplined for cause, pursuant to Article 6, Section 22, subdivision (a), of the Constitution and Section 44, subdivision 1, of the Judiciary Law, in that respondent failed to uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary by failing to maintain high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary would be preserved, in violation of Section 100.1 of the Rules; failed to avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in that she failed to respect and comply with the law and failed to act in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, in violation of Section 100.2(A) of the Rules; and failed to perform the duties of judicial office impartially and diligently in that she failed to give her judicial duties precedence over all her other activities, in violation of Section 100.3(A) of the Rules, failed to be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it, in violation of Section 100.3(B)(1) of the Rules, failed to diligently discharge her administrative responsibilities and maintain professional competence in judicial administration, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(1) of the Rules, and failed to require court staff to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to the judge, in violation of Section 100.3(C)(2) of the Rules.

WHEREFORE, by reason of the foregoing, the Commission should take whatever further action it deems appropriate in accordance with its powers under the Constitution and the Judiciary Law of the State of New York.
